

REFUGEE RIGHTS MONTH

ALL ARE WELCOME.

4TH
APRIL

Refugee Rights Month 2019 Launch

10 AM - 11 AM

Toronto City Hall – Members Lounge
100 Queen Street West, Toronto, ON

Refugee Rights Day Panel Discussion

12 PM – 2:30 PM

McLaughlin College Junior Common Room (014)
York University Keele Campus

RSVP: <https://goo.gl/forms/pErK2eML5wwgJOID3>

*Refugee Rights Day Panel Discussion, Syria
Response and Refugee Initiative Reception and
“The Road Less Travelled” Exhibit Launch*

Refugee Rights Month: Telling Our Stories

11 AM – 1 PM

1365 Queen St W, Toronto, ON

Please join Parkdale Community Legal Services and Parkdale Intercultural Association by celebrating the stories of Parkdale's refugee community.

Private Screening of Lifeboat (SOLD OUT)

7 PM

80 John Street, TIFF Festival Tower

Organized by Matthew House. After the film, there will be a panel discussion with a former resident from Afghanistan and various refugee rights advocates, followed by a question and answer session.

REFUGEE RIGHTS MONTH

5TH
APRIL

Mixed Feelings: Leaving Home Exhibition

April 3, 2019 10 AM – Apr 7, 2019 6 PM

RECEPTION - Friday April 5, 2019 (FREE Event)
6 PM – 8 PM

Gardiner Museum, 111 Queen's Park, Toronto, ON

*Celebrated Musicians Naghmeh Farahmand, Roula Said & Demetrios Petsalakis will play during the Reception. Admission to the Reception is free. RSVP turtlehouse@sympatico.ca
Turtle House Ceramics is a special clay-making project by Turtle House Art/Play Centre for Newcomer artists and non-artists primarily from refugee backgrounds.*

24TH
APRIL

ONCE UPON A REFUGEE Chapter II: The Unrehearsed Plan

6 PM — 9 PM

York Woods Library Theater, 1785 Finch Ave W, North York, ON.
This will be a community education event celebrating the experience and contributions of refugees, hosted by North York Community House. In recognition of Refugee Awareness Month, North York Community House will present an interactive, multi-media presentation. As a community organization that works extensively with refugees, we believe it is important to play an active role in highlighting the challenges that refugees have faced as well as the strengths, accomplishments and contributions of refugees in Canada.

27TH
APRIL

Home Away from Home

3 PM – 5 PM

60 Lowther Ave. Toronto, Ont. M5R 1C7

The Quaker Committee for Refugees celebrates Refugee Rights Month with a play, Home Away from Home. We invite the community to attend our interactive theatre performance, opening a dialogue on the complexities and challenges faced by newcomers to Canada. Admission free.

Saturday and Sunday 27–28 April

Our annual book sale runs through Saturday, 10:00–4:00, and Sunday, 10:00–1:00. All proceeds go to Toronto Friends Sponsoring Refugees.